我们希望寻找拥有突出的学术成果和优秀的课外经验的学生。

Instead of worrying about meeting a specific set of criteria, try to create an application that will help us see your achievements — inside the classroom and out — in their true context, so we can understand your potential to take advantage of the resources at Princeton and the kind of contribution you would make to the Princeton community.

We look for students who make a difference in their schools and communities, so tell us about your leadership activities, interests, special skills and other extracurricular involvements.

我们认为标准的申请材料可以作为申请者信息的样本来供我们了解。但我们认为，你可能有真正的天赋或成就想要跟我们分享，我们也不希望错过任何能够进一步了解你的机会。你可以提供一些补充性的资料，例如音乐作品，艺术作品，或者学术成果。

学术文章、研究、创造性写作或其他你是第一作者的材料都可以通过系统提交上来...如果可以，请在提交时标注你研究的赞助者、指导老师、研究小组领导并提供一段文字描述你在这个研究中做出的贡献

Our standard application materials typically give us ample information for making admission decisions. However, we recognize you may have truly exceptional talents or achievements you wish to share, and we want you to have every opportunity to best represent yourself.

At the discretion of the Admissions Committee, supplementary materials—such as music recordings, artwork, or selected samples of academic work—may be evaluated by faculty.

Scholarly articles, research, creative writing or other documents of which you are the primary author should be submitted in the Upload Materials section of the Applicant Portal. This is the most efficient and direct method of submitting these materials, because they will be added directly to your official application. All submissions should include a list of any individuals with whom you collaborated in the production of the work. If appropriate, please identify your research sponsor, mentor, and/or laboratory or research group leader and provide a short description of your particular contribution to the work.
